Notes:

1. Courses with an asterisk (*) next to them have prerequisites.
2. Courses numbered 285, 289, 484, 485, or 489 do not satisfy University Core Curriculum requirements.
3. Courses in red will also satisfy the 6 hour International and Cultural Diversity requirement as stipulated on page 20 of the 2008-2009 Texas A&M University Undergraduate Catalog. For example, if a student takes ARTS 150 and ANTH 210, then that student has satisfied the International and Cultural Diversity requirement as well as the Visual and Performing Arts requirement and the Social and Behavioral Sciences requirement. Therefore, students should chose at least two of the courses in red, from two different sections, if they want to avoid taking additional hours.
4. Courses with an "@" next to them must be taken abroad in order to satisfy the International & Cultural Diversity requirement.
